Ljubljana, 20. 4. 2022

Dear Sir or Madam,

Our common efforts have finally brought about the end of the pandemic which will certainly not stop us from organizing our International Summer School Academia Aestiva Internationalis - AAI. We are writing to you with the intent of sharing an overview of the Summer School, however, we would also kindly ask you to share the following information with anyone who would potentially be interested in our Summer School.

Academia Aestiva Internationalis will take place between the 27th of June and the 3rd of July 2022 at the Faculty of Social Sciences in Ljubljana. It will focus on various crisis and issues that have put our democratic values to the test in the sense that democratic governance, human rights and the rule of law are losing traction within the international system. We want to shift our focus from classic lectures towards interactive classes which we hope will, combined with workshops and social events, create a platform for debate and constructive dialogue. And, since most of these classes will be headed by internationally recognized lecturers, we have also decided to offer the ability to obtain 4 ECTS to the participants that take part in our international conference.

Compared to the last Summer School we organized this one will take place fully in physical form at the Faculty in Ljubljana. This is also why we hope to attract a large number of attendees, since that would contribute to the quality of classes, workshops and socials.

We cordially invite anyone that is even slightly interested to join us in the summer and apply to the AAI Summer School 2022! We would also be grateful if you could share this information with anyone that might be interested in such an experience. You will find more information at the following link to our official website (<https://www.academiaaestivainternationalis.com/>), where applications are already open and will close on 20th of May 2022.

With kind regards,
