

Certificate of English Language Proficiency

Student Details

Family name

Home University

Given names

Program/Degree

Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) Student English Proficiency Evaluation (to be completed by home institution)

Comprehension (please tick one box)

- a) Understands complex sentences of all kinds without difficulty.
- b) Understands almost all sentences of general and scientific content.
- c) Understands simple sentences of general and scientific content.
- d) Understands simple sentences with difficulty. Repetition and help with translation necessary.
- e) Has extreme difficulty understanding simple sentences.

Speaking (please tick one box)

- a) Speaks flawless English. Can discuss complex topics of all kinds.
- b) Speaks fluently on general and scientific topics, with occasional grammatical, vocabulary and/or idiomatic errors.
- c) Can express him/herself on general and scientific topics with errors and not fluently. Uses simple sentences and limited vocabulary.
- d) Can express him/herself using simple factual sentences and a very limited vocabulary.
- e) Has extreme difficulty making him/herself understood.

Writing (please tick one box)

- a) Writes fluently on complex topics of all kinds in an appropriate manner.
- b) Writes fluently on general and scientific topics with occasional grammatical, vocabulary and/or idiomatic errors.
- c) Writes about general and scientific facts using simple sentences, a limited vocabulary and occasional grammatical errors.
- d) Writes about simple facts using very limited vocabulary and faulty grammar.
- e) Has extreme difficulty formulating thoughts in written form.

Reading (please tick one box)

- a) Understands complex texts of all kinds without difficulty.
- b) Understands difficult general and scientific texts.
- c) Understands general and scientific texts of intermediate difficulty.
- d) Understands simple texts.
- e) Has extreme difficulty understanding even simple texts.

I have evaluated this student, under the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, based on their studies conducted in English and I certify that their proficiency in English is equivalent to (please tick one box):

C2

C1

B2

B1

A2

A1

Name of delegate authority (please print)

Signature

Stamp/Seal of Institution

Position held

Date