Internship: Intelligence Specialist [2 places]

Role:

Intelligence Specialist, Intern

Area of focus:

Open-Source (OS) analysis and intelligence assessment, contributing to PRINCEPS's main practices: (1) Due Diligence; (2) Information Security; (3) Competitive Intelligence; (4) Advocacy and Coalition Building; (5) Reputation Management.

Job Description:

The successful Intelligence Specialist (IS) will be able to handle a wide variety of analytical tasks at the intersection of business and politics. These tasks will range from Open-Source intelligence collection to data assessment, to policy writing, and business development support.

Each candidate will be asked to state their preferential (1) practices, (2) skills, and (3) region. Tasks will be assigned accordingly to assure a synergy between PRINCEPS's projects and the IS's career plans. The IS will report directly to the head(s) of practice(s) they choose as their preferential. The IS is expected to work remotely due to the pandemics-related constraints.

Expected skills:

The successful candidates will have exceptional research and analytical skills. Further, they will be passionate writers and clear communicators, preferably in multiple languages.

Type:

Paid internship, 20h/week; alternative arrangements can be explored with successful candidates.

Location:

Flexible

Dates:

PRINCEPS

September 2021 – December 2021; alternative arrangements can be explored with successful candidates.
