

Finance Specialist with Dutch

AB InBev is looking for you – a results-oriented and hardworking professional!

Be ready to start your career in the finance domain and to work aside great and At AB InBev, Challenge Accepted isn't just a phrase; it's an attitude. That's because we're the world's largest brewer, with iconic brands like Stella Artois, Corona and Samson.

The challenge:

You will be a meaningful player in the finance team. For us, finance is not just a support department, but it is involved in the very core of our business processes. As AB InBev is spread out across Europe, reporting becomes more and more important. We want to make sure that all the numbers are reliable, so we can make the right business decisions. And that's where you come into play.

But don't get us wrong, you will not be involved only in operations. You will be the owner of the elaborate process and technology knowledge in the credit and collections team and responsible for credit-collections, deduction management activities within the defined customer portfolio.

And also be in charge of providing technical expertise support and training to the credit-collections team members. Providing support in implementing new processes and improving the existing methods, standardizing cross-team and cross-country collections processes, and acting as a project management SPOC for Global and EUR Zone project initiatives. You will make an impact and have fun along the way!

What will you be doing:

- Customer account maintenance, clean-up, and clearing, including deductions reconciliation and work on unallocated cash items
- Deep dive into deduction flow, drive root cause analysis and lead-time improvement
- Prepare and lead the regular collections routine meetings with Sales, Logistics, and other teams
- Support the implementation of standard processes for new activities performed by the team
- Provide training, consultancy, and coaching to the team on E2E process execution in credit collections and OTC area
- Together with the team, identify and resolve overdue and commercial losses issues caused by process issues

You will be working aside your other 20 colleagues and Team Leader and be part of an international and multicultural finance team.

What you'll bring:

- Proficient written and spoken knowledge of English and Dutch
- Graduate degree in Finance, Accounting, or Business administration or equal job experience

- 2+ years of finance or customer experience - understanding of the Credit management field required
- Proficient in Excel, Word, and PowerPoint skills
- Self-motivator, capable of leading and motivating people
- Strong leadership and analytical skills
- Time management

What you get:

- 25 Days of Paid Holiday
- Meal Vouchers
- Accident Health Luggage Insurance
- Benefits Café Program
- Transport Benefit
- Beer Vouchers
- Discounts and Company Events – Open Bars

We're a team of curious individuals who see every challenge as a new opportunity to do something incredible. We're resourceful people who thrive and take ownership of our success. Because we're owners, we take results personally. We dream big, take on new challenges and push the boundaries of what's possible.

As the leading global brewer, we are committed to bringing people together for a better – and more equal – world. A more equal world starts when everyone can thrive. At AB InBev, we value the diversity of cultures, perspectives, skills, and experiences within our workforce. We strongly encourage women, people of color, LGBTQ+ individuals, people with disabilities, members of ethnic minorities, foreign-born residents, and veterans to apply.

Meet Pim de Beer! He began his journey at AB InBev in 2013 where he worked in our Prague offices, he oversaw the billing cycle with our finance team. Eventually he took on additional responsibilities that led to his new role as Head of Category Management in the Netherlands.