CHOOSE YOUR PROGRAMME:

BACHELOR IN ECONOMICS AND FINANCE (BEF)

BEF will give you a thorough grounding in both theoretical and applied economics and finance. Since we put an emphasis on developing abstract analytical reasoning, as a graduate you will be able to solve complex economic and financial problems in various settings. The courses are taught both by the members of the Institute of Economic Studies (IES) and by external professionals from the financial industry.

Our graduates usually continue to graduate level programmes like the MEF programme. They are also able to immediately start working in international, research, administrative or commercial environments.

MASTER IN ECONOMICS AND FINANCE (MEF)

The programme is open to students with a completed bachelor's degree who have a solid background in mathematics, the principles of economics and finance and a good command of English. We educate specialists who are able to independently solve theoretical and applied problems and undertake tasks equipped with a thorough knowledge of contemporary economic theories. The courses are taught both by the faculty of the Institute of Economic Studies (IES) and by external professionals from the financial industry.

Our graduates typically assume challenging positions in banking, consulting, investment funds and public administration or they continue their studies in PhD programme at IES or other world recognized universities.

CORPORATE STRATEGY AND FINANCE IN EUROPE (CSF)

This unique international double-degree programme with the University of Strasbourg aims to provide students with broad knowledge and understanding of economic theory with a focus on financial and international economics corresponding to the present state of the art. Upon the completion of studies, students receive a Master's Diploma in "Corporate Strategy and Finance in Europe" from the University of Strasbourg and a Master's Degree Diploma with the academic title "Magistr" from Charles University in Prague. Graduates are qualified to undertake advanced-level quantitative analysis and modelling in economics and finance and are typically financial analysts, economists in corporations, consultants, economists in central banks and international organizations.
