

TIHANY CENTER
POLITICAL ANALYSIS

INVITATION

We would like to inform you that the Tihany Center and its team are going to organise its annual seminar in Balatonfüred (Tihany) again. This year's topic is the following: Elections to the European Parliament and the future of the EU.

Here are the most important information:

Proposed date: 29 August - 1 September, 2019

Location: Balatonfüred-Tihany, Hungary

Number of participants: 35-40

Invited speakers: Géza Jeszenszky, former minister of foreign affairs (Hungary); Stefan Drexler, expert (EPP-CSU); Gerhard Marchl, Dr. Gerhard Marchl, head of department for European politics (Karl-Renner-Institut); Gábor Szentiványi, former ambassador of the Republic of Hungary

Detailed program: (TBA)

Link for registration: <https://forms.gle/xgRGNcGcJDbvNwm77>

Requirements of participation: Registration, creating an essays in connection with the main topic, active participation during the seminar

Fees: All expenses (accommodation, food,) during your stay at the Lake Balaton are covered by the TCPA, if you fulfilled the requirements. That means you only have to pay for your travel costs.

About us:

The Tihany Centre for Political Analysis was established in 2013 as an independent research institute. György Odze, a retired diplomat is the owner and the director of the organisation. It is located in Tihany at the Lake Balaton (Hungary) in one of the most beautiful part of the country. The TCPA has a wide-range of activities which deal with issues important to Hungary's sphere of interest and political environment. The Center's primary area is Central Europe, Visegrad countries, but we also pay attention to the changes in Europe, the transatlantic ties and security issues. We offer practical solutions and keep an eye on how our theories work in practice. Link: <http://www.tihanypolitics.eu/en/>

Best regards,

György Odze
TCPA
director