

Extra Rewards and Scholarships from the Resources of a Coordinator and Bonuses of Progres Q18 program

- 1) The coordinator of Progres Q18, in cooperation with the Program Council, will propose to the Dean of FSV UK to pay out from the resources of a coordinator and bonuses extra rewards and scholarships for outstanding results achieved in 2017 in Progress Q18 by the individual researchers, or research teams.
- 2) Proposals for such a reward can be submitted by all the staff and doctoral students of the FSV UK, who are employed as researchers of Progres Q18.
- 3) When evaluating the results, a greater emphasis will be placed on the acknowledgment of the field-related activities and results that have arisen within Progress Q18.
- 4) The categories and characteristics of the rewarded results are described in the Criteria for rewarding the results from the resources of a coordinator of Progress Q18 available at the website of Progress Q18 (<https://www.fsv.cuni.cz/veda-vyzkum/vnitrouniverzitni-programy/progres/progres-q18>).
- 5) Only suggestions submitted on special forms available at the website of Progress Q18 (<https://www.fsv.cuni.cz/veda-vyzkum/vnitrouniverzitni-programy/progres/progres-q18>) will be accepted.
- 6) In case of publishing results (group B1), a condition for granting extra rewards or scholarships is for these publications to be reported on behalf of FSV to the OBD (records of publication activities) and designated for inclusion in the RIV (registry of results).
- 7) The deadline for submitting proposals for rewards and extra scholarships starts on 6 November and ends on 19 November 2017.

1.11.2017

prof. PhDr. Jaroslav Kučera, CSc.
Designated coordinator for Progres Q18