2. Purpose and Scope of the Measure

This measure issues a new updated version of the Directive - Scholarships at FSV UK, which sets out the rules for applying for scholarships, awarding, and paying them. At the same time, this Directive establishes the amount of scholarships for outstanding study results achieved in a given academic year, scholarships for outstanding sporting results, for representing Charles University or FSV UK at international academic competitions, and doctoral scholarships. This measure is issued in connection with the Scholarship Regulations of Charles University (hereinafter referred to as the "Regulations") and the Rules for Awarding Scholarships at FSV UK (hereinafter referred to as the "Rules").

Part II – Basic Terms, Rules, and Roles

3. Definition of Terms

- 3.1. A candidate for study becomes a student on the date of enrolment. Enrolment takes place at the faculty that implements the respective study programme within the time limit set by the Dean of that faculty. A person whose studies have been interrupted becomes a student on the date of re-enrolment. A person ceases to be a student on the date of termination of studies in accordance with § 55 para 1 and § 56 paras 1 and 2 or interruption of studies in accordance with § 54 of Act No. 111/1998 Coll., Act on Universities and on Amendments and Supplementations to Other Acts (the Act on Universities).
- 3.2. Scholarship is a monetary support for students to encourage them to engage in activities related to their studies, based on meeting certain criteria set for a specific scholarship.
- 3.3. For the purposes of this Directive, the Regulations mean the Scholarship Regulations of Charles University.
- 3.4. For the purposes of this Directive, the Rules mean the Rules for Awarding Scholarships at FSV UK.

Part III – Scholarships for Outstanding Study Results

4. Rules for Awarding Scholarship for Outstanding Study Results

- 4.1. Award of this scholarship is set out in Article 4 of the Regulations and Article 2 of the Rules.
- 4.2. The scholarship for outstanding study results will be payable retrospectively, on a one-off basis in November for the preceding academic year; 10% of the best-achieving students are entitled to the scholarship in accordance with the Regulations and the Rules. The detailed rules for calculating the grade-point average (GPA) and other conditions for awarding this scholarship are set out in Article 2 of the Rules.

- 4.3. The scholarship for outstanding study results is awarded by the Dean on an ex-officio basis.
- 4.4. In accordance with Article 2 para 3 of the Rules, an application for inclusion in the calculation of the scholarship for outstanding study results may be submitted in writing to the Student Services Office via the Faculty's post room no later than the end of October of a given year, including the confirmation of fulfilled obligations for the last year of the previous bachelor's degree study at another university.

5. Determination of the Amount of Scholarship for Outstanding Study Results

- 5.1. Award of this scholarship is set out in Article 4 para 3 and para 4 of the Regulations.
- 5.2. The specific amount of the scholarship for outstanding study results of students of bachelor's and master's degree programmes achieved in the academic year of 2022/2023, who are eligible for the award of this scholarship in accordance with the Regulations and Rules, is set at 15,000 CZK.
- 5.3. In accordance with Article 4 para 4 of the Regulations, the specific amount of scholarship for outstanding study results referred to in point 5.2 of this Guideline is determined for the respective academic year by the Dean of the Faculty after the opinion of the Academic Senate of the Faculty.

Part IV – Scholarship Worthy of Special Consideration

6. Scholarship for Participation in Teaching Activity of the Faculty

- 6.1. Award of this scholarship is set out in Article 9 of the Regulations and Article 5 of the Rules.
- 6.2. In accordance with Article 9 of the Regulations, the scholarship may be awarded for participation in the teaching activities of the Faculty to the students of doctoral and post-bachelor's degree programmes.
- 6.3. The application is submitted through SIS by the workplace where the student of FSV UK participates in teaching activities. The proposer of the scholarship for participation in the teaching activities may be the director of the institute or the head of the department where the student performs his/her teaching activities.
- 6.4. A staff member of the Student Services Office will check the formalities of the application and the conditions for awarding the scholarship in accordance with the Regulations.
- 6.5. The amount requested will be assessed by the respective Vice-Dean.
- 6.6. Each institute may annually draw an amount from the scholarship fund for scholarships under this part of the Measure, the level of which is always determined at the time of budget allocation. A similar procedure applies to the scholarships for active participation in the creative activities of the Faculty's workplaces and scholarships for active participation in international cooperation of the Faculty's workplaces or the Faculty as a whole.

7. Scholarship for Outstanding Sporting Results and Representation of the University

- 7.1. Award of this scholarship is set out in Article 9 of the Regulations and Article 5 of the Rules.
