

Workshop

The Environmental History of the Central European Borderlands since 1980s

20 September 2019

Charles University, Faculty of Social Sciences
Prague, Smetanovo nábřeží 6, Room H212

9:00 REGISTRATION

9:15 WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION
(Kateřina Vnoučková, Prague)

9:20 KEYNOTE LECTURE
(Doubravka Olšáková, Prague)
'The nature has circumscribed a circle about me that I can't cross': Environmental history since 1989 – trends, directions, and limits

10:00 DISCUSSION

10:30 COFFEE BREAK

10:45 PANEL I: POLLUTION
(Chair: Václav Šmidrkal, Prague)

Kateřina Vnoučková (Prague)
Pollution of the Thaya River as a cross-border problem

Alexandra Wedl (Basel)
Air pollution in Czechoslovakia: Transnational perspectives and discourses

Jonas Stuck (Munich)
Behind the Trash Curtain. The movement of waste in Cold War Germany's Toxic Borderlands from the 1980s until the Fall of the Wall

Marko Zajc (Ljubljana/Koper)
Environmental issues and border river disputes:
the case of the Slovenian-Croatian border

12:30 DISCUSSION

13:00 LUNCH

14:30 PANEL II: NATURE PROTECTION
(Chair: Ota Konrád, Prague)

Pavla Šimková (Munich)
Transboundary Natures: Human and More-than-
-Human Mobilities in Bavarian Forest and Šumava
National Parks

Zhanna Baimukhamedova (Munich)
This Land is Mine: History, Identity, and Environmental Thinking in the Bavarian
Forest Region

Anna Barcz (Dublin)
Re-bordering the forest – the case of Białowieża

Daniela Neubacher (Budapest)
Actors of System Change. Cross-border networks during the Gabčíkovo-Nagymaros protests

16:15 DISCUSSION

16:45 COFFEE BREAK

17:00 WORKSHOP WRAP-UP (Tobias Huff, Mainz)

18:00 CONCLUSION

19:00 DINNER

FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES
Charles University

Forschungsverbund Grenze/n in nationalen und transnationalen Erinnerungskulturen
zwischen Tschechien und Bayern