

International Relations and Politics and Public Administration

Double degree programme of the Charles University and the University of Konstanz

Academic years 2017/2018 (Prague) and 2018/2019 (Konstanz)

Charles University

Programmes Mezinárodní vztahy (in Czech, <http://www.fsv.cuni.cz/FSVTEMP-629.html>) OR Master in International Relations (MAIN) (in English, <http://fsveng.fsv.cuni.cz/FSVEN-906.html>)

University of Konstanz

Programme Politics and Public Administration (in English, <https://www.polver.uni-konstanz.de/en/studies/master/mapolver/>)

Programme structure

First year of studies, Prague

Semester/Credits	Credits	Modules (Integration into the Prague's Master)
1. Semester
35 ECTS	6	Course on quantitative methods
	11	Courses on theories of international relations
	11	Courses on international security and armed conflicts
	7	Courses on international economic relations
2. Semester
37 ECTS	6	Course on qualitative methods
	11	Courses on international organizations
	9	Course on international law
	11	Courses on European integration

Second year of studies, Konstanz

Semester/Credits	Credits	Modules (Integration into the Prague's Master)
3. Semester
30 ECTS	9	Research Design I
	7	Basic Seminar in the Field of Specialization (IREI, M2)
	7	Seminar in the Field of Specialization (IREI, M3)
	7	Seminar in other area (IACM, CPPA, or MAPA, M3)
4. Semester
34 ECTS	4	Colloquium
	30	*MA Thesis (joint supervision, 15000 words)

Total

Total without the MA thesis	106
Total	136	ECTS credits*

* By course attendance, a student obtains 106 credits. To reach 120 credits for coursework necessary for fulfilling the Prague programme requirements, a student will get within the Prague programme an acknowledgement of passing additional courses for at least 14 credits against the credits obtained within the Konstanz programme for the MA thesis.